Do you have a projected release date? I'm really excited about her. Thanks for the answers to my questions!

The release date for this character as well as 3 others has been pushed back due to the recent crisis/changes here at HM. The only date I would be comfortable in giving at this point is end of feb - beginning of march time period. I hope sooner. But I have a lot of coding to install and fix for the main site and then I have to install the software for a automated delivery system and hopefully hack it so that it can integrated into the main site.
