Thanks for all the well wishes and thoughts guys. It really does help. I am home now thank GOD!!

I still have doctors baffled, I am only 40 years old in pretty good shape (only minor beer gut :) ) and all the tests they did came back with no blockage, no heart fatigue, nothing. Best they can figure is the virus I've had (goin on two weeks now) moved from making my body ache to my heart and hit it hard.

Again thanks for the thoughts and prayers guys they really did help cause I was getting down when day 3 in there came and they kept saying I had to stay ONE more day.
