i miss as well Bruce Timm's DCAU, i think they should make a final movie or something, i mean it was on air for about 12 years, from Batman TAS, up the JLU.

In JLNf i didnt like WW that much, but at the end i think she was more or less "realistic" to the character, and the time. Other than that, i loved it.

I read that DC animation is coming with TT: Judas contract, and the animation wont be like in the series, also a WW movie. And Batman Gotham Knight, which is gonna be like the animatrix. 6 stories that happend between B Begins and Dark Knight, the villians will be Killer croc, scarecrow and Deadshot. All stories will be made in anime style
