LMAO Peter, you're a nut man! I like ya

She does wear a corset in her formal atire... meeting headhonchos and what not and doing public events. Otherwise, it's the free flowing cotton blend outfit. I'll be sending you sketches of that too. Measurements, you'll love lol.

Um... timeline... Not a problem man. It took almost a year (little less than) for Steven E Gordon and I to get together for a piece of fan art from him. Man, he loved her too lol. I'll send you a small copy of the colors I'm doing with that as well.

And I know, it's no promise that you'll be able to do it and when... If it takes till Christmas, no biggie there either. SEcond coming of Christ... perhaps that'll be too late lol.

I'll send you a pm.

You want a zip file or individual pages sent btw?

I noticed on the Z brush tutorials on youtube, they only showed making a human head. Which sound simple, but dang... still jaw dropping to try and figure out everything you have to do for an object.
