I rather like the new design.

Although I am surprised that a competition was not done to design the new Lady Heromorph, she is somehow appropriate, seeing as how the site seems to be moving toward more and more 3D art.

Since I'm not a 3Der, I think this new design will be fun (and rather easy) to do a manip of. Very similar to Superman's costume.

Is she as big of a slut as the retiring Lady HM?
