Is this happening to anyone else?

- 1) I will log in to the site.
- 2) I will click any gallery link, i.e. Heromorph Gallery
- 3) The gallery will display, but the site no longer thinks I am logged in, and I have to log in a second time.
- 4) From that point forward I am OK.

I am on a Windows XP Professional system, using IE 7.0.5730.13 with Cipher Strength 128-Bit on a Dell Dual Core X86 Intel Family processor. And it's a nice gunmetal gray. And no, it does not look like a great big Tylenol.
