Alex!

Since you have made such great progress on your drawing of the figure (As Seen Here) I wanted to challenge you with something I think that is right up your alley.

This image has been in the Covers \(Manip Ideas for Bad Asses\) in the Cookie Jar (available to Gold Members and Hellfire Club Members).

Your challenge (should you choose to accept it) is to draw this image of Supergirl and Stargirl complete with the background (eliminating the line down the center) in your own style. There is no time limit, so take your time and do your best.

Simple Right?

It would be cool if we can follow your progress in the Lead Poisoning forum.
