Hey Max, Thanks for stepping up to the plate and keeping this idea going.

I am in of course,

Because the polls here are broken, we can alway use the rating system that is on every single picture in the gallery.

Max, I dont think that we can have adult pictures in this particular competition because The DCG over at C2F is a family site, so it would not get posted over there if it was an adult picture. Other then that it looks great.

Just let me know how my partner is, You can find my e-mail address in my profile, but make sure you put C2f Or Heromorph in the subject line or I will probably erase it with out looking at it.
