Me, I just think that it looks like a copy of Sin City and that will screw with the movie.

Agree with chilly, but I would prefer to see it black&white if the movie plot is set in the 40's and if set in the present day, I think it should be in full color. Since I haven't heard much about the movie, I'll wait to see what come out.

Anyways, maybe it will not be worse than that 80's Tv movie with the guy who played Flash Gordon.
