Hey there,

I've been a lurker on Heromorph for a while, mainly because I have no ability to do photomanipulations :) But while I was looking for pictures for an 'actress' profile for Supergirl on a MU*, I came across an intriguing possibility.

Hilary Duff as a Supergirl model?

Now, forget the whole Disney tween pop star thing for a moment and actually look at some of the more recent photos of her. Also, she went through a period of time recently as a brunette, so that could lead to the possibility of doing a 'Linda changing to Kara' manip using the same actress base.

Anyways, good work on all the art and manipulations that get posted here. You guys and gals never cease to impress me
