This idea isn't 'new', I've seen several Hilary Duff Supergirl manips, so if you look you can get your... fix... now (snigger, I know what you'll be doing tonight).

When you start doing manips you'll find that chosing base pictures doesn't work the way you think it does.

I think there is a thread for proposing Supergirl actresses... though it doesn't even have a fraction of the power of the Wonder Woman thread.
