This is how I know you are hitting on me, from the comment above, you are attempting to deflect the pain you felt when you had the dillusional thought that Pete and I could have a homosexual relationship like that of Hawk and Blurry! It was my attmept to shock you back to reality with the Blurry comment, and to let you know that it is alright for you to have those feelings for me, everyone does, it is my burden that I must carry. Everyone wants to be with MC!! Admitt it you know you do!
