Damn, Jr! I can't believe you were kind enough to have a self portrait done just for my little project.
You're the man!

You know... I really try and provide for our users here at HM.... I try.

By the way... who's the hot chick?

That is Fergalisious.

Stacey Furgeson (sp?) She likes to sing about her humps.

I found your hand pose!!!!!! Finally!!!!!!

Call of the wild: Photographer Jill Greenberg is well known for her anthropomorphic shots of monkeys and apes—her book Monkey Portraits (Bulfinch) featured Rocky (above), now a two-and-a-half-year-old orangutan. (Fittingly, the Black Eyed Peas' fourth album was titled Monkey Business.) To get Fergie and Rocky acquainted, Greenberg had them hang out on a couch. "Fergie was treating Rocky like a little baby," Greenberg recalls. "The two spent most of the shoot canoodling—however, all chumminess ceased after the last frame. 'I don't think Fergie got Rocky's number,' Greenberg says. "She joked that he made out with her and then left without saying goodbye." Monkeys.

It's nice to see that Danny Devito still gets work.
