Hmmm... So, I got to work today and there was a left over conversation in our "Gold Members(no, not Austin Powers)" shout box between Chilly and Thayne. Chilly brought up a web page/forum that is hot linking all of our images. I am a little pissed off..... that I have only found two of my images there.

Anyway, I just thought I would post the site and get your thoughts on what they are doing there. OH, also, can anyone tell me (us) what language the site is in? I would like to translate some of it to see what they are saying. OCP sends me enough stuff in Portuguese (I hope that is right) that I am pretty sure that it isn't Portuguese... but hell, who knows.

Thoughts?
