I feel

. I put a lot of thought and study into this. The one I liked the most isn't the one I am voting for. Both had a lot of work, alot tallent, and time. Hawk's picture had more of a theme, a story, that pulled it together. It had more interest and played up the theme of the cartoon better. Each character in Bio's is an amazing work unto themselves, but nothing unified them as a whole.
