Hey Brick, The deadlines are set already.

July 7 for sign up

Find out your teammate on July 8

Post artwork on August 8

A few of the fine folk at c2f, would like to see the Aug 8 deadline set a little further down the road.

I didn't say c2f had a bad turn out, just not as good as ours.

But I say lets get on with it, if the guys there are worried about time, Lets start now. Give them an extra 2 weeks to work on their pictures.

O never mind, I will just sit back, and wait.

Someone wake me when we are ready to start.
