The story I saw inferred that Angelina Jolie would be Catwoman in a 'Catwoman' movie, a-la Halle Berry.

There is also a rumour they want Johnny Depp to play Riddler in a Batman movie.

But the reality is nothing is going to be decided for years... any story that will increase or feed off the hype for Dark Knight is being published right now.

One thing that is fact is Sam Niell playing Mr Jones in the movie version of Under the Mountain. This tv show freaked me out when I was a kid, I can't wait to see it on the bigscreen with modern effects.
