Well, we'll have to see the ultimate product to really know if they hit it or blew it...

I saw an article where Patrick Wilson (Nite Owl II) was given a choice of wearing a fatsuit, and he decided to put on weight instead. I'm thinking some of the scenes of a slim buff NO2 are maybe flashbacks? Although there aren't really any such scenes in the TP. I can see this kind of "well you see, once I was in great shape, but see how I've let myself go" crap being added for the "rubes".
