Excuse me but, hotness aside, when the heck did Angelina Jolie become a bigger name than Michael Caine, Liam Neeson, Gary Oldman, Morgan Freeman and so on?

Bigger in the tabloids? Sure.

A bigger name when it comes to 'sexiest people alive' lists? That too.

But in movies? Not in my book.

If done right, I think Catwoman can work even in this round of Batman movies. I'd be more worried about the Riddler or Penguin rumours. (and that has nothing to do with my desire to see AJ in tight latex, honestly.)
