So, when did the Joker start dressing up as Catwoman?

Ok, so I'll roll with it.

Personally I think they should just leave the Joker alone now. I can guarantee that the general public is so in love with Ledger's performance that NO ONE will fill the Joker's shoes in their eyes. It's the same thing with Superman Returns. THE biggest reason everyone said it was shit was because people still tell their kids that Christopher Reeves IS/WAS/WILL ALWAYS BE Superman. So basically if Nolan wants to make money and keep people happy, he should just move on WITHOUT the Joker.
