Personnally I think Mark Hammil would make a better Joker than Robin Williams

I was joking.

Now having Catwoman in the next movie would make sense Since they kinda have a love hate relationship in the comics. Plus Bruce's love got all blowed up so they need to introduce a new love interest. (I hope I didn't just spoil that part for anyone... oh well... ) So, Catwoman does make perfect sense. Now who to play her is a completely other issue.

Oh and on a side note... Maggie Gyllenhaal just almost killed that movie for me... I have a VERY hard time looking at that woman... If you can even call her a woman. I was actually happy when... Well... you know. She looks just like her brother... with boobs.
