They don't need to do a reboot. My brother and I were talking about the "didn't leave the character" part of their reasoning and we both said the same thing. "You approved the script, jackasses."

This whole "darker and brooding" thing tells me that it is going to tank and I think it was predicted by this man here. Superman

I told my brother about the darker and brooding bit and the first thing we both thought was "is he fighting a giant spider at the end of it". lol
