now thats fucked up.

I just finished rewatching the "Catwoman" movie (bomb squad was on stand-by) and had a real freaky idea:

Why not give Halle Berry a chance to redeem the role she played here? I know She stated that the movie was "Shit!"...but, with a better script...attention to detail that the new 'Batman' movies have been given...and, with the focus on Bale's charactorization of the Batman...MIGHT Halle have a better chance at the role? (I know, I know "WTF you been smokkin', Wolf?" Nothing but ribs abd chicken, man...ribs and chickens!)

Let's give it some serious thought here, OK?
