I personally think that all of HM's galleries get consistant high quality of images posted here. really I do, top notch. So 5 would be average to the quality of the images posted here, a five isn't that bad. That being said some artists are a heck of a lot better then others. If images by Andriod, JrmcDeath, and Colero are tens. Then the vast majority of my own art would not be a ten. So if I get a lower vote I really don't sweat it.
