Well as some of you have noticed there has been a change, We have merged the galleries together. This was done after a long discussion and after much thought. I hope that everyone will enjoy the new simplified set up. All the regular galleries have been merged into one gallery.

All the 2d, 3d, and manips can now be found in one fun and friendly place.

Why you may ask, well we are hoping that this move will make the different types of artists closer.

3D'ers mingling with Pencillers, Manipers talking to colorists.

After all we are here to make art and have fun so we thought we would make it easier to see the art.

Also the forums have been simplified. the number of categories and actual forums have been greatly reduced as well.

If you have any questions please post here. If you hate this, I just want to go on record as saying it is Daruma's fault, he is the one to blame. If you love the idea, then Winter did it.
