Not to be-little your conspiracy theory here... BUT.... really, who gives a shit... it is Hollywood... None of those hacks have the ability to love... they do what is best for their career. If they didn't, don't you think they would marry high school sweet hearts and other no bodies?

I loathe having to admit it...but, I agree with JrMcD here...does anyone really give a rat's ass about the 'HollyWeird Elite'? All they care about is their careers...and their egos.
