DAMN IT!!!!!! Why do all the legends we love have to die? That really puts a real shitty spin to my day! Thanks for letting us know Wolf

Alan Seegar, eh? I'd have figured you would quote Emily Dickinson's "Because I could stop for Death", instead.

Either way, I have to agree about all of the legends dying on us. They come flame brightly if but for a moment; then, like the 'candle burning at both ends'...they fade away, leaving those of us left behind but a memory of their passing by us...
