Somehow the subject of Superheroes came up at the family Christmas lunch in the weekend and my smart ass uncle asked if there was a gay, black, Jewish Superhero whose identity was known to the public.

I was able to think of a few black Superheroes, Hal Jordan, Vixen, Black Lightning and a lesbian, the new Batwoman, as well a Elongated Man whose identity is known, but no Jewish hero nor one that is all four.

Can anyone think of any or add to the list?

Oh and i apologize if I have somehow offended anyone
