I saw The Spirit today, and it was awful.
No plot (seriously, no plot at all).
Random storyline where things happen for the sake of it.
Terrible dialogue.
Bad acting from everyone, including Samuel Jackson.
The things that are meant to be jokes aren't funny.
No mystery or suspense... characters literally stand there and spell everything out for you.
Whatever decade it is meant to be is all messed up.
Visually it is a complete mess.

The only thing I enjoyed in this movie was Eva Mendes in a wetsuit, naked and dressed in boots and half a curtain.
