2009 is here, What comic book movies are you looking forward to?

Persoanlly I am at this point most looking forward to X-Men Origins: Wolverine. I really liked the X-men movies. The third one wasn't as good as the others but it was still it was enjoyable.

I am also looking forward to Watchmen. The comics were great and I am not expected an exact translation of the comic book but it should still be good. From what I have seen it looks very enjoyable.

I saw an add for a show called Push that was very comic book like, The trailer looked good, but I am often tricked by trailers

The summer also has the GiJoe Movie coming and I am both looking forward to this one but also quite worried. This picture has the potential to be awesome or Suck hardcore.

Other comic shows that I have heard about but don't know much about are Preacher, Sherlock Holmes, Hack/Slash, Kickass, Red Sonja, and Whiteout, The Surrogates, and Astro Boy. Marvel also Has a few cartoon movies coming soon, like Wolverine Vs. Hulk and Thor Vs. Hulk. I have all the other marvel animated features upto this point and I have enjoyed all of them with my kids. Dc has a animated Wonder Woman coming in the spring.

I probably missed some but what shows are you all looking forward to this year.

Comic book like movies Dragonball, Terminator, Transformers, & Star Trek are also coming this year.

So what are you all looking forward too this year?
