Argh! Some douchebag already rated it an 8! I make an image that is completely fake and taxes my PC to the limit and I get an 8... I do some 2 hour crappy thing and I get 10s.

I like your stuff, Chilly, even the 2 hour ones.

It would be nice, though, to know WHY an "8" was earned, huh?

Like the "6" I just got...

It's not the score so much for me as the learning process. As I know I'm still a NOOB to the whole thing and appreciate the better artists' input greatly (e.g. your suggestion on the Transporter Malfunction piece of mine)

Where and how improvements could be made would be great knowledge.

Yeah, feedback should be required for voting purposes...

Oh, yeah, and I'd give yours a 10 myself if WW would've been in a star-spangled thong.
