Hi everyone,

Well I would like to announce that we are again taking applications for people to join the Heromorph Admin team. We have had a number of Admin leave in the past year and more recently some admin have had to reduce their roles here at Heromorph because of real world circumstances.

We are looking for people that Love the site, are willing to work a few hours a week doing certain tasks and duties. Web admin experience is not a requirement but will help you in the selection process. We are looking for a can do attitude more then anything else. We are looking for one or more people to handle various things from contest management and promotion, the Fan Fiction section, The forum, and other extra's.

This is a voluntary position and offers no pay. If you have applied in the past please re-send your application.

all applications can be sent to winterhawk200@yahoo.ca
