Chilly and drunken D I did a forum rant once for just the same issue. If ya want ta give an artist a score at least provide a reason.

On the color I did of She-Hulk I received an 8 which I had no problems with because the poster actually told me why! Hell if ya give me a 1 I can live with thay so long as there are reasons. Notice I didn't say valid reasons, because its all in the eye of the viewer.

Although "I don't like the character", "I hate your guts", "Your my best friend in the whole world", "I want you to give me a ten also", or "Your a mod, I don't want you mad at me". ARE NOT VALID POINTS OF CRITIQUE!
