Sorry DK, do you mean you want to post early or late?

BTW everyone voting will be via emailing myself or Juvenile Mike, either a PM or I will post my hotmail later.

We will then announce the winning team after voting is over.

This is for 2 reasons, firstly so no one knows who came last, or second to last, or fifth to last.

The second reason is the poll function here still doesn't seem to be working.

Entries that are posted late will not get any votes (so they don't get an advantage of more time) - and will be ineligible to win the HUGE imaginary CASH PRIZE!!!

Max - the truth isn't out there any more, I hid it.
