Ok, So I don't know what to do with the Mary Marvel I have. I know I want her somewhere else though. Here's what I have now.

My CHALLENGE...! (thunder crashes) (horse whinny)

(queue drums)

ehem....

My challenge to you is to take the single Mary Marvel and put her somewhere. Do something with her.

My only rules are

- 1.)you can't alter what she looks like unless you're changing her costume colors. (I spent a lot of time on her)
  - 2.)Be creative, try and match the quality I put into it. But don't kill yourself over it.
  - 3.) Credit DC comics because she's there character
  - 4.)credit me cause I did the original hours of photo manipulation to make her look awesome.
  - 5.) have fun and send me a message and a link to yours on either mine or my profile.
  - 6.)Follow the Heromorph contest rules and regulations.
- Nothing graphic, no violence, gore, or nudity.

Here's the link to the single Mary. It's a tiff. So the you can just select the black background and delete it with any fragments I forgot to erase.
