Re-read the TPB over the weekend. This is the first time I've had a chance to come back to this. The nuke explosion you're talking about, Was, is from Dreiberg's dream he had.

The name of their group, if they were an organized group, is never mentioned in the series, but references to "Watchmen" are made through out it in flashbacks appearing on protest signs before the Keene Act was past and graffitti throughout the city. "Who Watches the Watchmen" is like a battle cry for the protesters against vigilantes so it can be guessed at that the name of their group was Watchmen.
