Alright Everyone.

The Awards are here, the voting is underway and the Awards Show will be going on Very soon!!

Your Mission if you choose to accept it is to do a Image...or images of your digital self or other Heromorpher's arriving at the red carpet with your choice of Hollywood, comic book, Sci-fi, Fantasy, or Heromorph A+ listers!!!!

Voting for the awards will go until the end of the month so you have until then to finish your images.

Now knowing this group I assume chaos and hijinx will occur even during the walk down the red carpet.

Everyone is invited to take part in any medium that you want. Don't do art, well then feel free to write a transcript from a radio or TV show broadcasting the Members and/or yourself as everyone arrives to the Red carpet!!

Post your images in either gallery. Points for humor
No prizes but expect to have a lot of fun!!!!

Just put HM VS. the Red Carpet: in the title.
