Hello Heromorph!!!

This is the biggest change yet I thought it deserved it's own Thread.

The standard membership has been replaced with HM Network. You will find it as the second choice on the main menu.

Here you can search the other Members, add friends, make users groups called Tribes, Rate your friends, Leave messages for each other on the scrap board and more.

We are really proud of this new section. I hope everyone here enjoys the new section, We are extremely pleased to add these new features here at Heromorph and hope it helps build us together as a community.

If you have any questions Please let us know.
