ok so i did my 1st one it came out alright but.... sum of the things i need like quickmask are not there how in the h do u do manip's i had to ruff it out and thats not easy especially with a mouse so im thinking cs programs and a wacom table any ideas??

or idea on how to better my manip's on photoshop elements??

fell free to look at mine let me know what u think granted its not the best art work out there but elements is all i have for now untill i can anti up the cash thnks
