The boys thought I should get a Twitter account. I figured it was so they could cyber-stalk me, but it turns out it has a better use. I can update YOU on what's happening at Heromorph.

If you use Twitter, my address is <http://twitter.com/LadyHeromorph> . If you've got a Smart Phone, you can access updates using one of a number of Mobile Apps that link to Twitter.

FOLLOW me and I'll follow you as well. That way we can keep in touch. ;)

Love Always,

Lady Heromorph
