I've been watching a lot of the re-runs on whatever obscure cable channel they've been running on, I think it's toon disney? The story-lines are still really great vintage x-men stuff, but the animation is downright terrible. If somehow you could take the writing from the old 90s show and combine it with the animation from the x-men evolution I think you'd really be onto something. It's just too bad that none of the new marvel cartoons seem that interested in taking their storylines from the classic comics.

I dunno. The new "Wolverine & the X-men" looks like it's going to revisit some of the classic stories, albeit with some adjustments (Emma Frost as the field telepath instead of Jean Grey, for example).
