hey all,

I was just putzing through the net and discovered an interesting item on www.moviefone.com. I don't know who here's a SIN CITY fan, but the site said that Ms. Angelina Jolie is "in serious talks" to play the lead lady in SIN CITY 2. should be interesting, though I am really not familiar with the whole series. just the first book. comments? by the way, the link is this:

should be interesting. supposedly, she is also considered for the next Bond film as Vesper Lynd.
