I've heard that Chuck and Terminator: The Sarah Connor Chronicles are both in danger of cancellation. I sent a letter about Chuck to NBC and I plan to write Fox about T:TSCC soon. This always happens to good geek fare. Remember The Tick? Remember Firefly? We buy crap, doesn't our demographic appeal to advertisers?

If you don't watch these shows, check them out on Hulu (the hits there will help). And if you do watch them, please send letters. Here is a Save Chuck site.

If anyone knows of a good Terminator campaign, let me know.
