All the stories have been read. the Judges have Voted. and after the dust settled the Winning story was.....

Patriot.

No writers were harmed during judging. If any writers experience a rash due to the judgement rendered please see a Doctor. if you experience shortness of breath or trouble breathing as a result of this judgement, you may be experiencing a rare but potentially deadly side effect, please stop taking the judgement immediately.

The judges of the contest were not involved in the writing story telling or the rules of this contest. all they got to do was read the submitted stories and pick their favorite. If you have any further Questions, please talk to your doctor about Judgement. If you experience a judgement that lasts for more then four hours please call your Doctor immediately.
