OK, I saw this puppy on friday.

It took me a couple days to post here because I had to really think of what I thought of the movie.

I liked it but it would only rate as better then average for me. It had some amazing parts to the movie, but it left me wanting more out of it. I would have paid big money to see more of Ryan reynold's character at the begining of the movie making wise cracks and such. I also would have liked to see more of Agent Zero.

The dude that played Sabertooth did a really good job.

The special effects and acting was on par with the other X-men films.

As I am writing this and looking back at the movie, I am realizing that the only thing I really liked was the action scenes.

That said, I know I will get the blue ray of this movie when it comes out. Definately not brilliant film making but it is a good action movie for when you want to veg out.
