OK, I am really looking forward to this show.

I really like that they are going back to the original characters of Kirk, Bones, Spock, etc.. I always liked these guys more then the Next gen characters.

I have seen a bunch of interviews and behind the scenes stuff about this show on tv so far and I am way more pumped about it then I originally was.

One of the reason is that they have been saying that this movie takes place in an alternate version of history then the original star trek movies. so that they had the freedom to do what they wanted. This way we don't really know what is going to happen and it will bring in new fans to the series. Sort of like the way they rebooted Batman. and it gets the movie out of the extremely rich and full history. If they had to worry about all the other movies, TV shows, and books that came before it, They would be extremely limited in their story.

I am pumped. anyway what do you all think?

I can't wait to see this baby.
