here's my list:

Tigra is an animal. She'll show you a good time provided you're not allergic to cats. Hopefully you won't mind the claws...

Vixen

Vixen is a wild one. If you treat her right, you might be able to make her purr. If not, she might channel the powers of a rhinoceros and skewer your ass. 16.2%

Elektra

She'll basically kill you. Treat her right or you might get a vasectomy courtesy of her ninja sword. 13.2%

Moondragon

Moondragon has been around the galaxy and once had the mind gem. Don't try to pull a fast one her. (You checked the Crazy-Britney style hair didn't you?) 13.2

I'm not sure how moondragon made the cut. i hate it when my wife cuts her hair
