Saw the movie today. I have to say that it was just as the video described it even though the video is a joke. Great origin story with lots of action, character development, and good special effects.

They changed some things around a little bit. Okay, they changed some things a lot, but they did it in a way that makes sense and doesn't take away from the original series. Also, the way they changed things doesn't really make this movie a "reimagining" of the Star Trek Universe, but makes it more of a fresh story and setting to build off of.

All the actors playing the roles did an excellent job. The portrayals of the characters were done well enough at some points that you could see the original actors playing these parts today. Especially the guy who played McCoy. The way he delivered his lines and his mannerisms looked and sounded just like DeForest Kelley.

Excellent movie. Go see it!
