Saw it the other night and it works as a thrill ride really well, but I have to say the underpinning of the main plot line doesn't quite ring true. I won't give away anything, but I can't say I've ever liked that sci-fi plot device much.

That said, the casting is excellent, the ship, the gadgets, uniforms click and the dialogue is crisp. Given that I'm a fan, I'm harder on 'em. So, over all it gets a big thumbs up. Of casting note, no Yeoman Rand or Nurse Chapel. Guess that will have to wait for the sequel. We'll see.
