I had nothing better to do so I watched the movie...WOW!!! it deserves an Oscar...yeah right!

I don't know why people keep spending their money in doing s@#\$it like this
, the fx are bad, they repeated a lot of action (chasing) scenes...the best thing about this movie is the trailer.

Thanks Jr. for letting me know of the existence of this piece of art

Are you Nucking Futs???? That was the BEST shittiest movie I have seen in a long time! The shark, for no reason, bit the golden gate bridge in half!!! It swims faster than a Jet... IT was genius! And you mean to tell me that you didn't like the fact that every time we saw the shark, it was swimming past the camera the exact same way??? Awesome....

This looks like something they'd show on SciFi/SyFy channel on Saturday night, the "crappiest night on television"!

YYou are right... it goes right along side with the 15 different giant crocodile movies and the raptor movie. I think the acting in Jaws v. Octopuss might be the best of the worst though.
